CODE OF ETHICS

Members of SPMBC have an obligation to protect the welfare and best interest of their breed by conducting themselves in a manner as to reflect credit to themselves, their breed, and the SPMBC.

Members who exhibit are expected to observe the highest standards of sportsmanship; conduct themselves in such a manner as to reflect positively on the sport of showing dogs; and exhibit good will at all shows and obedience trials.

Members who contemplate breeding a litter, or who allow use of their stud dog for the same purpose shall direct their efforts toward producing dogs of quality, of even temperament, vigor, and free of health problems. They shall be familiar with the Bulldog breed and its BCA/AKC approved standard and breed only those specimens that conform to it. Members shall not engage in false or misleading advertising of misrepresentation of their breed, nor shall they malign their competitors' dogs, breeding practices, or person.

Blatant disregard for the standards set out in this code shall be considered unacceptable behavior and not supported by the BCA or SPMBC.

RELEASE OF LIABILITY

By signing and submitting this application for membership consideration, applicant authorizes and agrees to hold harmless and without liability the SPMBC, its officers and its members to investigate, solicit, and obtain and discuss any and all information pertaining to an applicant's moral and ethical character as it relates to the standards and guidelines set forth by the SPMBC and which is believed by the SPMBC, its officers and its members to have a bearing upon the applicants moral and ethical character. Applicant acknowledges that all information gathered shall be open for review and discussion among the SPMBC, its officers, and its members as part of the SPMBC membership application process.
